STATEMENT OF OFFENCE

Offence as charged Battery, contrary to common law and section 39 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 Contrary to the statutory provision modelled for this family. Mode: summary / either-way as applicable to the modelled offence. Maximum penalty: as provided by the modelled statute (not restated as proof).

PARTICULARS OF OFFENCE

It is alleged that within the charged window the defendant(s) committed the offence set out above. This instrument records the allegation only — it does not prove the allegation.

Particulars (modelled): place — as particularised in the MG5 narrative; date — within the charged window; victim/property — as alleged on the papers served; manner — as particularised on the charging instrument.

The accused is put on notice that the prosecution may rely on witness statements, media schedules and unused-material decisions disclosed separately. Nothing in this form elevates an allegation to a proved fact.
