PARTICULARS OF OFFENCE

It is alleged that within the charged window the defendant(s) committed the offence set out above. This instrument records the allegation only — it does not prove the allegation.

Particulars (modelled): place — as particularised in the MG5 narrative; date — within the charged window; victim/property — as alleged on the papers served; manner — as particularised on the charging instrument.

The accused is put on notice that the prosecution may rely on witness statements, media schedules and unused-material decisions disclosed separately. Nothing in this form elevates an allegation to a proved fact.

Box	Content
